

LHS DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

10/20/2017

For any student interested in a trip to Spain in June with Mr. Smith, Spanish teacher at the middle school, there is going to be a meeting next Wednesday, 10/25 at 6:30 in room 22 at the middle school. It is for anyone who would like more information on the trip. The meeting will take approximately one hour. A representative from the company (Live N Learn) will be coming to talk about what we do on each day during the trip and will answer any questions. See a Spanish teacher if you have questions.

Current NHS members will meet on Tuesday, 10/24 after school in Mrs. Dell's room, 354. This is a very important meeting. See your email or Mrs. Dell for details.

For anyone interested in joining the Ski and Snowboard Club, pick up an information packet at the Athletic Office Information Table between October 23rd and November 7th. Please return your completed paperwork to Mrs. Niemeyer in room #277 ASAP. Fees will be collected the morning of November 8th before school.

Next week is Red Ribbon Week. This year's theme is "Your Future Is Key, So Stay Drug Free". Outside the cafeteria there will be a table for each of us to sign a "key" pledging to stay drug free. Also, throughout the week there are a variety of dress up days to match that day's saying.

Monday - EVERYONE wear Red to kick the week off.

Tuesday: Your Future is Too Bright for Drugs (wear neon)

Wednesday: Sock it to Drugs (crazy sock day)

Thursday: Real Heroes Don't Do Drugs (super hero/capes)

Friday: Don't Get Wrapped up in Drugs (toga or mummy)

There will be special gifts and visitors throughout the week.

ATTENTION FEMALE STUDENTS! Are you interested in pursuing a career in Information Technology, Informatics and/or Computer Science?

Would you like to learn from regional entrepreneurs using technology and information technology to create solutions for global business partners?

How about having the opportunity to spend the afternoon working with women in solving a real challenge facing an emerging company using the latest technology tools and design thinking skill sets?

And last but not least...compete for PRIZES and collaborative social media experiences with University and Business mentors.

Mrs. Viox would love to have you join her for a day at the Women in Technology Conference at the Cintas Conference Center on Friday, November 17, 2017

See her in Room 349 for more details and a permission slip!

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS: This is a reminder that there is to be no charging in cafeteria. Please remember to check your balance before entering the service line.

Anyone interested in participating in Math Team, please stop by Ms. Byrnett's room (room 355) to pick up a handout with details of this year's competitions. (10/20)
